The First Week of Lent

On the First Sunday of Lent, as we begin our Lenten journey, remembering how God re-established the covenant after the flood, and we reflect on how Jesus began his public ministry with a retreat of forty days - driven to the desert by the Spirit.

After last week's first four days, the next three weeks of Lent represent a period of instruction, originally designed for the Catechumens (those preparing for Baptism at the Easter Vigil). We can read these readings as a catechism of renewal for us all.

The first weekday reading of week one is the great giving of the Commandments: “Be holy, for I, the LORD, your God, am holy.” Jesus gives the great parable about the last judgment - separating the charitable from the uncharitable: “whatever you did for one of these least brothers of mine, you did for me.” Then, Jesus teaches his disciples to pray. He says that it is an evil generation that looks for “signs.” He's the sign - a call to repentance. On the day we hear the desperate but faith-filled prayer of Esther, Jesus tells us to pray confidently. And he sums up the whole law and the prophets for us: “Do to others whatever you would have them do to you.” Jesus says our holiness has to go beyond the letter-of-the-law holiness; it must touch our anger, our judgments of others, and be reconciled with those we've wronged. The holiness Jesus proposes for us calls us to love our enemies, even to pray for those who persecute us. We are called to love the way God does.

Monday is the Feast of the Chair of St. Peter.

For the Second Sunday of Lent we read of how God tested Abraham's faith. In the gospel we witness how Jesus showed his disciples his glory, to prepare them for what is to come. A voice from a cloud said, “This is my Son, my beloved. Listen to him.” All we need to do for the journey ahead is to listen to him.

La primera semana de Cuaresma

El primer domingo de Cuaresma, al comenzar nuestro camino cuaresmal, recordando cómo Dios restableció el convenio después del diluvio, y reflexionamos sobre cómo Jesús comenzó su ministerio público con un retiro de cuarenta días, conducido al desierto por el Espíritu.

Después de los primeros cuatro días de la semana pasada, las siguientes tres semanas de Cuaresma representan un período de instrucción, originalmente diseñado para los catecúmenos (aquellos que se preparan para el bautismo en la Vigilia Pascual). Podemos leer estas lecturas como un catecismo de renovación para todos nosotros.

La primera lectura de entre semana es la gran entrega de los Mandamientos: "Sean santos, porque yo, tu Dios, soy santo." Jesús da la gran parábola sobre el último juicio- separan a la caritativa de lo no caritativo: "lo que hayas hecho por uno de estos hermanos menos míos, hiciste por mí." Entonces, Jesús enseña a sus discípulos a orar. Dice que es una generación malvada que busca "señales". Es la señal, un llamado al arrepentimiento. El día que escuchamos la oración desesperada pero llena de fe de Ester, Jesús nos dice que oremos con confianza. Y resume toda la ley y los profetas: "Haz a los demás lo que quisieras que te hicieran a ti." Jesús dice que nuestra santidad tiene que ir más allá de la santidad de la carta de la ley; debe tocar nuestra ira, nuestros juicios de los demás, y reconciliarse con aquellos a los que hemos ofendido. La santidad que Jesús propone para nosotros nos llama a amar a nuestros enemigos, incluso a orar por los que nos persiguen. Estamos llamados a amar en la forma en que Dios lo hace.

El jueves es la fiesta de la Cátedra de San Pedro.

Para el segundo domingo de Cuaresma leemos cómo Dios puso a prueba la fe de Abraham. En el Evangelio testificamos cómo Jesús mostró a sus discípulos su gloria, para prepararlos para lo que está por venir. Una voz de una nube dijo: "Este es mi Hijo, mi amado. Escúchalo." Todo lo que tenemos que hacer para el viaje que tenemos por delante es escucharlo.

In Appreciation/ En Agradecimiento

Sylvia has been the coordinator of the Ministry of Prayer in Spanish for the last seven years; this group brings evangelization to its members through prayer. Sylvia accepted this responsibility, first because of her love for God, but also because she wants others to be able reach where she has been able to go in her relationship with God. Although, she sadly told me that the group has been reduced due to the pandemic. Sylvia is also a Eucharistic Minister. Sylvia has been married for 41 years, has two children and three grandchildren, but she told me that she has been blessed with two more daughters, as she considers her daughters-in-law as her daughters. She likes to spend her free time with her family, but she also likes to go shopping.
Being part of the Saint Joseph community is a great joy for Sylvia- she told me that she has found friends that she can trust and that make her feel complete. She is grateful for being part of our community and blessed by our pastors. Sylvia from all of u, we want to thank you and show our appreciation for sharing your time and talents with our Saint Joseph parish and community.

May God Bless you and your family.

Sylvia ha sido la coordinadora del Ministerio de Oración en español durante los últimos siete años, este grupo lleva la evangelización a sus integrantes a través de la oración. Sylvia acepto esta responsabilidad, primero por el amor que siente por Dios, pero también porque ella desea que otros puedan llegar a donde ella ha podido llegar en su relación con Dios. Aunque con tristeza me comentaba que el grupo se ha reducido debido a la pandemia. Sylvia también es miembro del Ministerio de Eucharistia.
Sylvia ha estado casada por 41 años, tiene dos hijos y tres nietos, pero me contaba que ha sido bendecida con dos hijas más, pues considera a sus nueras como sus hijas. En su tiempo libre, le gusta pasarlo con su familia, pero tambien le gusta mucho irse de compras.
Ser parte de la comunidad de San Jose es un júbilo muy granda para Sylvia, donde me contaba que ha encontrado amistades en la que puede confiar y que la hacen sentir completa. Agradecida por ser parte de nuestra comunidad y bendecida por nuestros párrocos.
Sylvia de parte de todos nosotros queremos darte las gracias y agradecerte por compartir su tiempo y talentos con nuestro parroquia y comunidad de San Jose.

Bendiciones para ti y tu familia.
